STATINTL

I was sorry to read in your report on student reaction to the first running of the Office Management Seminar at Headquarters the derogatory comments regarding the decision to runTATINTL the course in the Headquarters area as opposed to ____ to wit, "the expense of sending a few very high level secretaries for a 3-day course is actually very little; . . . we deserve at least that much consideration." You will recall that I inquired as to why the course was being run in Headquarters as opposed to ____ as is normal, and was informed that many senior secretaries at the grade levels included in the course are married with children and cannot take advantage of the course at ____ Further, that the size of the class could be doubled since the use of _____ restricts STATINTL the number.

STATINTL

- Apparently it was not made clear to the secretaries that the reason for running the course this time at Headquarters was to permit those secretaries the opportunity to attend who could not do so if it were conducted at ____ I hate to think that there are some secretaries at large who feel that we have discriminated against them by holding the course here without benefit of the rationale
 - If we hold any future courses of this nature at Headquarters as a benefit for working mothers, I suggest that that fact be made clear to the attendees. While it may be desirable to hold the course here periodically to "catch the working mothers," I, for one, feel that there are tremendous advantages for holding it at ____ and as a side note would not lower the prerequisite of attendance below a grade 8. If there is need to train GS-7's, then let's do so separately and not mix the senior secretary any more than we would tie the Senior Seminar together with the Mid-career course. men of byant willy of kall (the 76-8240) STATINTL

MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Officer to the

Deputy Director for Administration

: Office Management Seminar SUBJECT

- 1. In response to your request for a report on student reaction to the first running of the Office Management Seminar in the headquarters area, the following observations are submitted.
- 2. Eighteen students, ranging in grade from GS-8 to GS-10, representing the Office of the Director and the four Directorates, participated in the Seminar. (Two additional students cancelled the first day - one because of illness and the second because of the pressure of work.) At least one-half of the student body was composed of women who, because of family responsibilities, had not been able to participate in previous runnings conducted out of town.
- 3. No strong oral complaints were received by the Course Coordinator. An assessment of the 18 course evaluation forms submitted by the students at the conclusion of the Seminar all showed the students to be generally praiseworthy of the content of the course. Only five students commented in the evaluations on the fact that something had been lost by its not These complaints are STATINTL being conducted L quoted verbatim in Attachment A.
- 4. The Office Management Seminar was designed in 1972 for the senior secretary and to date we have trained 154 women in that category. The turnover in these secretarial positions is relatively small and the course is presently being offered only twice a year. Accordingly, it would appear that at some time during FY 7 the grade level prerequisite (now GS-8 and above) should be lowered to GS-7, thereby increasing the number of those eligible to attend considerably. This would probably require us to increase the number of runnings and—all factors considered—we would plan to conduct for each running held in two runnings at the this area.
- 5. Attached for your information is a copy of the Course Schedule. (Mr. Colby had to cancel his appearance because of another commitment.)

	"I wish more time had been allowed for open discussion of problems. Perhaps when the course was at a more informal atmosphere - not rushing through to catch the shuttle, etc., was present. Really feel the course should be held there or lengthened to 4 days."
	"This was a very well-organized and well-run course; one of the most enjoyable as well as profitable courses I've taken in the Agency. I think more free time for open/cross discussion with each other would have been desirable and profitable. Perhaps the closed and controlled environment of would have been advantageous."
"	"I think it unfortunate that this course was moved from the we never really had the time to get to know one another. I've heard from past classes about the warmth and friendships that have developed because of the days and evenings spent just talking about common problems. Certainly we know one another better than we did before, but when you have to drive from here to there, go to different places for lunch, and then take off at 4:15, it's not possible to develop the depth necessary to gain the most from this course. Also, very much money is spent on the Executive - sending him on TDY's, courses, leave with pay to study - and they deserve it. But the expense of sending a few very high level secretaries for a 3-day course is actually very little; if it does an important job in building self-esteem and higher regard for the job. I think that at this point in our careers, we deserve at least that much consideration to make this the best possible course for the Executive Secretary. In spite of all this, the course was very useful and very enjoyable. I am grateful for being given the opportunity to attend."
STATINTL	"There should have been more time to discuss office problems with the other secretaries/admin assts. I feel this was the worst part of not having the course at for at least 2 full days. I think we would have opened up more. Even if there was a way to ensure that everyone ate lunch together, it probably would have helped us to feel more at ease."
	"This course definitely lost something by its being transferred from I didn't feel "immersed" and people didn't air their problems as much as if they had known each other better. We need to be in a closed tober 1975 NOTE FOR: Mr. McMahon SUBJECT: Office Management Course STATINTL 1. You asked that I do some low key checking on OTR's intention to move the Office Management Course from to Chamber of Commerce (C of C) Building. DECEMBER 2. OTR is running a trial course at C of C on 4 November. Depending on how the course goes, they may recommend continuing at C of C. The reasons have nothing to do with money. The following reasons have been a part of the decision to at least try having the course up here: Many senior secretaries at the grade STATINTI levels included in this course are married with children and cannot take advantage of the course STATINTL It might well be easier to obtain guest speakers if given here rather than The size of the class could be doubled STATINTL since the use of _____ restricts the number STATINTL of those who can attend. Rod feels that we might well run out of available students if the course is run exclusively at STATINTL I will be informed as to how the pilot course moves along. I did indicate that there could be overriding reasons for continuing the course at although on the other hand, an occasional running at C of C to pick up the married senior secretaries might be worthwhile.
